

I have eaten the plums that were in the icebarn

Forgive me. At least there's other produce still in there.

Standard icebarn rules:

- Draw a single path from the entrance at the top to the exit at the bottom, moving only up/down/left/right, through centers of squares.
- Every arrow must be visited, and must be passed through in the correct direction.
- Every blue "ice" region (not every square) must be visited at least once.
- When on a blue "ice" square, you may NOT turn, only continue straight. However, you MAY visit a blue square more than once, crossing it in the other direction.
- When on a white "ground" square, you MAY turn or go straight. However, you may NOT visit a white square more than once.
- Not every square must be visited.

When finished, read every 3rd letter on the path for a clue to the 7-letter answer.
